

1633
8996

¶ By the King.

¶ A Proclamation for Prizing of Wines.

Heresas by the Statute made in the eight and twentieth yeere of the Reigne of King Henry the eight for prizing of waines It is provided, That the Lord Chancellour, Lord Treasurer, Lord President of the Kings most honourable Councell, Lord Privie Seale, and the Lord chiefe Justices of either Bench, or fine, fourre, or three of them, shall haue power and authoritie by their discretions, to set the prices of all kinde of waines, as in the said Statute is expressed; By vertue wherof, the Lord Keeper of Our great Seale of England, the Keeper of Our Privy Seale, the Lord chiefe Justice of His Majesties Bench, and the Lord Chiefe Justice of the Common Pleas the eight and twentieth day of December last past did order, That Cannary waines, Muscadell, and Alligant should bee sold in Grosse at sixteene pounds the Pipe, and at twelue pence the Quart by Retaile; Sackes and Mallegoes at thirteeene pounds the Butt in Grosse, and nine pence the Quart by Retaile; The best Gascoigne and French Wines at eighteene pounds the Tunne; and the Rochel waines, and other small and thinne waines, at fifteene pounds the Tunne in Grosse, and at sixe pence the Quart by Retaile, and according to these proportions for greater or lesser quantities, either in Grosse or by Retaile; and that none presume to sell at higher prices during the next yeere then ensuing, wherof the Clerke of the Crowne was to take notice, and to see the same proclaimed the then next Terme in the Chancery according to the Statute, And accordingly there hath been proclamation made the first day of Hillary Terme, being the three and twentieth day of January last.

Now that all cause of excuse may bee remooued from such as inhabite in remote parts of this Realme, and that such as shall bee found delinquents herein may acknowledge their owne wilfulnesse the cause of the danger and penalty they fall into, after double aduertisement, His Highnesse will and pleasure is, and by the advise of the sayd Lords and the rest of His Privy Councell according to one other Statute made in that behalfe in the fourth yeere of the reigne of His most noble Progenitor King Edward the third, by this his Royall Proclamation, doth publish & declare, That for one yeere next following, Cannarie waines, Mus-tabels, and Alligants bee sould in grosse at sixteen pounds the Pipe, and at twelue pence the Quart by Retaile, Sacks and Mallegoes at thirteene pound the Butt in grosse, and nine pence the Quart by Retaile, the best Gascoigne and French wines at eightene pounds the Tunne in grosse, and sixe pence the Quart by Retaile, and the Rochell wines and other small and thinne wines at fifteene pounds the Tunne in grosse and at five pence the Quart by Retaile, and according to these proportions for greater or lesser quantities either in Grosse or by Retaile. Which rates and prises his Highnesse pleasure is shall bee duly obserued in all his Ports and other places within this Realme where wines are landed and within ten miles of those Ports and places.

1632

And it is his Maiesties pleasure, that in places where wines by land-carriage, shall be conveyed more then Tenne miles from the next Port, The severall sorts of wines aforesaid, shall and may bee sold according to the Rates aforesayd, allowing four pounds the Tunne, and one pennie for the Quart for the carriage thereof vpon land every Thirtie miles, & according to that proportion, and not at greater Rates, Straightly charging and commanding such of his Subjects, and others whom it shall concerne, that none of them during the Time aforesayd, presume to sell any of the said wines in Grosse, and by Retaile, at higher Rates, then by this his highnesse Proclamation are appointed, vnder the forfeitures and penalties mentioned in the sayd Statute, and other the Lawes & Statutes of this Realme ordayned in that behalfe, and such further paines & penalties as by the Lawes and Statutes of this Realme, can or may bee inflicted vpon wilfull contemners of his Maiesties Royall Command and Proclamation: Requiring and commanding all Mayors, Sheriffes, Justices of Peace, Bayliffes, Customers, Comptrollers, and other Officers of Our Ports, and all others whom it shall concerne, diligently to attend the execution of this Our pleasure, and to give information to the Lords and others of the Privie Councell of the Delinquents, that they may bee proceeded against, and receve punishment according to their demerits.

Given at the Court at Whitehall, the eighteenth day of February, in the eighth yeere of the Reigne of our Souereigne Lord, C H A R L E S by the grace of God King of England, Scotland, France and Ireland, Defender of the Faith, &c.

God saue the King.

¶ Imprinted at London by Robert Barker, Printer to the Kings most Excellent MAIESTIE: and by the Aſſignes of John Bill. M.DC.XXXII.